Cardboard boxes that we know are lying around your house and create a Giants Causeway. A great source of adventure and entertainment is the skydiving, and an adventure park full of inflatables, indoor entertainment is fun to offer and one of the great sources of adventure.

THE CUISINE OF BELFAST

The final activity in our Belfast Camp this week is an exploration of the fun and food of Belfast by cooking it ourselves! Belfast is home to a great deal of fine dining and there is even chocolate covered pretzels for a child's greatest sugar dreams. The shop boasts walls and walls of homemade candy, candy from Aunt Sandra’s Homemade Candies.

One of the great joys of travel is getting to try new foods and exploring new ways of eating. The Cuisine of Belfast is no exception to this rule and here are a few examples of the food of Belfast!

- Have you ever tried these Irish recipes made with potatoes?
  - an Irish twist on mashed potatoes with scallions
  - an Irish potato pancake
  - Boxty
  - Hot Cross Buns

The Berlin Zoo developed a Native Species Program in 2004 to help teach the public about the importance of conservation. Ireland and all over the world. Preserving and protecting animals and the environment is called conservation.

CONSERVATION

Today, Belfast is home to the Titanic Museum, where visitors can experience an immersive tour of the Titanic, a reconstruction of the original ship, as well as other White Star Line vessels in nine interactive galleries. You can even read more about the Titanic here.

THE BELFAST ZOO

The Belfast Zoo is the ultimate place to take the kids! It is an educational experience that they will never forget. The zoo has more than 1,000 animals from around the world, and you can learn about the different species native to their region, many of which are endangered. In order to preserve these species, the Belfast Zoo has developed a Native Species Program in 2004 to help teach the public about conservation.
